

Vista Products: Availability and Limitations on Usage

Vista CRT Indices™ together with related data and services are licensed products of Vista Data Services (“Vista Data”). Full details regarding Vista products including definitions are available on Vista Data’s website at www.vistadataservices.com/resources and this document should be read in conjunction with the Resources Section, accordingly. The use of Vista Data products is governed by the terms described below.

Vista Data offers its products in two ways: Free public use and paid subscriptions. Publicly available products are viewable on Vista’s website and through arrangements with other market data distributors. Subscription products are offered exclusively through Vista Data and require licenses for private use.

Free Public Use of Vista Products is Subject to the Following Terms and Disclaimers

Vista Data products are provided for your information purposes only, without regard to your specific investment objectives, financial situation or particular needs, and shall not be construed as a solicitation, offer or recommendation to buy or sell any securities, investment or other financial instruments, to affect any transactions or to conclude any legal act of any kind whatsoever.

Any non-licensed use of Vista Data products for the purpose of issuing financial instruments referencing any Vista Data, entering into financial contracts or financial instruments referencing any Vista Data, determining the amount payable of a financial instrument or a financial contract by referencing any Vista Data or measuring the performance of an investment fund using any Vista Data for the purpose of tracking the returns is expressly prohibited except as provided for under a separate license agreement from Vista Data.

Vista Data disclaims to the maximum extent permitted by applicable law all other representations and warranties, express or implied, including without limitation any warranty of merchantability, quality, fitness for particular purpose, uninterrupted services, error-free Vista Data products or the sequence, timeliness, accuracy or completeness of the Vista Data products.

Subscription Use of Vista Products

The private use of Vista Data products is governed by subscription agreements between Vista Data and its clients. Vista Data subscriptions provide for a wide range of internal and external uses of Vista CRT Indices data including, but not limited to, their use within financial products, accounting, securities valuations and performance benchmarking. Users should contact Vista Data directly to subscribe to these services. Market participants who buy, sell or hold investment products that refer to Vista Data’s data either directly or indirectly may be required to obtain a subscription from Vista Data for the use of Vista Data’s data in connection with those products. Market participants should check with Vista Data to determine whether a subscription is necessary.

The use of indices may be governed by regulations within individual countries and regions. Users should check whether their specific use of Vista Data products fall under any of these regulations and determine whether they are able to use Vista Data products for those purposes.
